BJP MP Sakshi Maharaj's car hit by milk tanker in Etah

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Agra: BJP MP from Unnao Sakshi Maharaj escaped with minor injuries after his car was hit by a milk tanker on Tuesday morning at the Hath Darwaza roundabout on the Grand Trunk road in Etah. The MP claimed it was an attempt to murder him and filed a written complaint with Etah police. The driver of the tanker, identified as Rajendar Singh of Kosma village, was booked by police, who added "attempt to murder" charge against him based on the MP's claim.

Apart from Sakshi Maharaj, his driver Ashok Kumar and one Gajendar, a local resident who was riding a motor-bike, were injured in the accident. The tanker, coming from the opposite direction, hit the MP's escort car first, which was ahead of the vehicle that he was in. The tanker

The driver of the tanker was booked under attempt to murder after Maharaj's (inset) claim. Another person on a bike was also injured then sped towards his car and damaged its front portion. "It was an audacious attempt to kill me. The tanker was coming from the wrong side; it first hit my escort car and then rammed into my SUV," said Sakshi Maharaj, who sustained a cut on the palm of his right hand. He added, "My driver applied brakes immediately after the tanker collided with the escort car but the tanker gave the matter and find out who the owner of tanker is." Additional superintendent of police of Etah, Sanjay Kumar, said, "Prima facie it seems to be a road accident caused by rash driving as the tanker was coming from the wrong side but since the MP filed a written complaint alleging it was an attempt to murder him, the accused driver has been booked under IPC sections 279 (rash driving), 307
